1. OLD TOWN LOCKUP
This two-story brick edifice, circa 1885, was built along the Old Philadelphia to Baltimore Road. Until the late 1980's, the building served as the town hall.

4. MILL HOUSE
The Mill House was built in sections, with the earliest part dating to the first quarter of the 18th century. An early mill site was originally adjacent to the House. Paneling from this home is in the Cecil bedroom in the Winterthur Museum in Delaware.

5. 5&10 ANTIQUE MARKET
This large frame Victorian building was originally constructed as a hotel. Today, it houses a multi-dealer antique market.

6. 110 SOUTH MAIN STREET
This masonry and frame structure originally served as the post office.

7. SIMCOE HOUSE
This log and frame 18th century structure has served as a home and offices over its history.

8. REYNOLDS HOUSE
This log home represents the Federal period.

9. THE WILLIAM RONEY HOUSE
This Victorian home, with its checked lattice, retains many of its original architectural elements.

2. WEST LOG HOME
This late 18th century colonial-style dwelling was once used as an inn and stage stop.

3. ANDY ANDERSON HOME
This lovely example of the Victorian era was originally the home of a local hardware store owner. It remains today as a private home.

10. HANNUM HOUSE
This house is on The Maryland Historical Sites Survey. Early maps indicate a coffin maker resided here.

11. ST. MARY ANNE'S CHURCH
This Colonial era church retains much of the original exterior. The bell tower in the south wall was donated by the Brookings Family. The church is surrounded by a very early cemetery.

12. NORTH EAST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
The congregation dates from 1781. The first Methodist Parsonage in the United States was located here.

13. RONEY & WELLS
This old structure served as a hardware store until the family closed it in 1989. Today it is England's Colony on the Bay Gift & Christmas Shop.

14. UPPER BAY MUSEUM
The Museum houses a collection of water oriented artifacts. Built in 1880, this structure was originally a fish house.
